Remarks:

The attached material is fairly representative of the bulk of our efforts on section 515 of S. 3390. The package breaks down into three segments:

(a) our analysis of the problem and five topics on which we felt some preparation was in order;

(b) suggested floor statements supporting the Dominick amendment, likewise broken down according to the five topics;

(c) the Senate floor discussion on the revised Dominick amendment and its adoption.

I believe you have received excerpts from our Journal and Memorandum for the Record covering the evolution of the original Dominick amendment into the revised form which was eventually adopted. If not, let us know and we will pull them together for you again.
